Chapter 1

Introduction

- 1.1 The Commissioner for Labour (C for L) regulates employment agencies (EAs) through licensing, conducting regular and surprise inspections, as well as complaint investigation pursuant to Part XII of the Employment Ordinance (EO) (Cap. 57) and the Employment Agency Regulations (EAR) (Cap. 57A). These legal provisions apply to all EAs in Hong Kong and an EA is defined under section 50(1) of EO as "a person who operates a business the purpose of which is to obtain employment for another person; or to supply the labour of another person, to an employer, whether or not the person who operates the business will derive any pecuniary or other material advantage from either the employer or such other person".
- 1.2 Section 62A(1) of EO provides that C for L may issue codes of practice (CoP) setting out principles, procedures, guidelines and standards for the operation, management or control of EAs. In accordance with the provision, C for L promulgated this CoP for EAs to follow in business operation so as to promote professionalism and service quality in the industry. If the licensee or person intending to be the licensee, a related person<sup>1</sup> of or an individual employed by such licensee or person intending to be the licensee fails to comply with this CoP, C for L may refuse to issue or renew an EA licence, or may revoke an EA licence under section 53(1) of EO. The provision empowers C for L to exercise such power if he/she is satisfied on reasonable grounds that –
  - (a) the name under which the EA is operated or is intended to be operated –
    - (i) is identical with the name of another EA which is being, or has been, carried on by another person; or
    - (ii) so nearly resembles the name of another EA as to be likely to deceive the public;
  - (b) the EA is being, or is likely to be, used for unlawful or immoral purposes;
  - (c) the licensee or the person intending to be the licensee –
    - (i) is an undischarged bankrupt;
    - (ii) has, within the preceding five years, been convicted of an offence against the person of a child, young person or woman or of an offence involving membership of a triad society, fraud, dishonesty or extortion;

<sup>1</sup> A related person means, in relation to a company, a director, manager, secretary, or other similar officer of the company; or in relation to a partner in a partnership, another partner in the partnership or another person concerned in the management of the partnership.

Chapter 1 : Introduction

- (iii) has knowingly furnished to C for L any false or misleading information in connection with his/her application for the issue or renewal of the licence;
  - (iv) has contravened any provision of Part XII of EO or any regulation made under section 62<sup>2</sup> of EO;
  - (iva) has not complied with a CoP issued under section 62A(1) of EO; or
  - (v) is not, for any other reason, a fit and proper person to operate an EA;
- (d) (if the licensee or the person intending to be the licensee is a company or a partner in a partnership) a related person of the licensee or person –
- (i) has, within the preceding five years, been convicted of an offence against the person of a child, young person or woman or of an offence involving membership of a triad society, fraud, dishonesty or extortion;
  - (ii) has contravened any provision of Part XII of EO or any regulation made under section 62 of EO; or
  - (iii) has not complied with a CoP issued under section 62A(1) of EO; or
- (e) an individual employed by the licensee or by the person intending to be the licensee –
- (i) has contravened any provision of Part XII of EO or any regulation made under section 62 of EO; or
  - (ii) has not complied with a CoP issued under section 62A(1) of EO.

<sup>2</sup> According to section 62 of EO, the Chief Executive in Council may make regulations for all or any of the following purposes –

- (a) prescribing the procedure for the issue of licences and certificates of exemption (CoE);
- (b) fixing the fees to be paid for the issue and renewal of a licence or CoE and the method of payment of such fees;
- (c) prescribing the procedure to be followed when a licensee or holder of a CoE -
  - (i) ceases to operate his EA; or
  - (ii) changes the place of business of his EA;
- (d) prescribing the procedure to be followed when -
  - (i) a company is issued with a licence or CoE; and
  - (ii) there is a change in the management of the company;
- (e) requiring a licensee and the holder of a CoE to display his licence or CoE conspicuously at the place of business of the EA;
- (f) providing for the publication in the Gazette of particulars of all licences and CoEs;
- (g) prescribing the nature of services in respect of which an EA may charge and receive any fee, commission or expenses;
- (h) prescribing the maximum fees and charges which may be charged and received by an EA;
- (i) prescribing any thing which is to be or may be prescribed under Part XII of EO; and
- (j) generally for the better carrying out of the provisions and purposes of Part XII of EO.

EAR is made under section 62 of EO.

- 1.3 Non-compliance with this CoP by the EA licensee or the person intending to be the licensee, a related person of or an individual employed by the licensee or the person intending to be the licensee is a ground upon which C for L may refuse to issue or renew, or revoke a licence under sections 53(1)(c)(iva), 53(1)(d)(iii) and 53(1)(e)(ii) of EO.
- 1.4 This CoP consists of two major parts, namely Chapters 3 and 4. Chapter 3 of this CoP restates the salient legislative requirements in EO and EAR that EAs must follow when operating their business. It also sets out the provisions of other legislation which are considered most relevant to the operation of EAs and must also be observed. Chapter 4 sets out the minimum standards which C for L expects from EAs.
- 1.5 To enhance transparency, the Labour Department (LD) will publish a list of licensed EAs at its website for verification by members of the public. For the purpose of protecting the public interest, LD may also publish information and post information on its website when an EA has been convicted, the licence of an EA has been revoked or its application for renewal has been refused, and/or when C for L has issued any warning or taken any disciplinary action against an EA.
- 1.6 This CoP should be read by all EA licensees, the nominated operators<sup>3</sup>, related persons of and the individuals employed by the licensees or the person intending to be the licensee, as well as parties interested in joining the EA business. It should be stressed that this CoP is NOT a replacement of EO and EAR. EO, EAR, the Immigration Ordinance (IO) (Cap. 115), the Trade Descriptions Ordinance (TDO) (Cap. 362), the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (PDPO) (Cap. 486), the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance (POBO) (Cap. 201), and all other relevant laws of Hong Kong (including the anti-discrimination legislation) remain the sole authority for the provisions explained in this CoP. EA licensees, the nominated operators, related persons of and the individuals employed by the licensees and applicants for EA licences shall refer to the relevant provisions at all times. In case of doubt, EAs (or applicants for EA licences) may approach:
  - (a) the Employment Agencies Administration (EAA) of LD for enquiries on EO and EAR;
  - (b) the Immigration Department (ImmD) for enquiries on IO;

<sup>3</sup> According to regulation 7 of EAR, "a company to which a licence is issued shall notify C for L in writing of the name of an individual who is –

(a) an associate (as defined by section 50(1) of EO) of the company; and
(b) appointed by the company to operate, manage or assist in the management of the employment agency in respect of which the licence is issued.

This appointed person is referred to as the "nominated operator" in this CoP.

Chapter 1 : Introduction

- (c) the Customs and Excise Department (C&ED) for enquiries on TDO;
- (d) the Office of the Privacy Commissioner for Personal Data (PCPD) for enquiries on PDPO;
- (e) the Equal Opportunities Commission (EOC) for enquiries relating to anti-discrimination legislation; and
- (f) the Independent Commission Against Corruption (ICAC) for enquiries on POBO.

It is also important to note that compliance with this CoP does not in itself confer immunity from legal obligations in Hong Kong.

- 1.7 According to section 62A(2) of EO, C for L is to make a copy of CoP available for inspection by the public free of charge during business hours at offices of the Government directed by C for L. Members of the public may inspect this CoP for free at EAA of LD during office hours (Address : Unit 906, 9/F, One Mong Kok Road Commercial Centre, 1 Mong Kok Road, Kowloon). This CoP may also be downloaded from LD's website (www.labour.gov.hk) and at the Employment Agencies Portal (www.eaa.labour.gov.hk).
- 1.8 C for L may amend and update this CoP as and when necessary, particularly having regard to legislative changes and practices of EAs.

Statutory requirements in relation to operating an employment agency

3.1 Introduction

3.1.1 This chapter lists out the salient statutory requirements which EAs must observe. They are by no means exhaustive and EAs shall ensure that their operations are in full compliance with all laws of Hong Kong at all times. Failure to comply with the laws may lead to legal consequences, including prosecution; C for L may also consider revoking or refusing to renew the EA licence.

3.2 All EAs must be licensed before commencing operation

- 3.2.1 Save for the exceptions as provided under section 50(3) of EO<sup>4</sup>, only a holder of an EA licence or CoE<sup>5</sup> or an associate of the holder may operate, manage or assist in the management of an EA in Hong Kong.
- 3.2.2 An EA licence is valid for operating an EA at the place of business specified in the licence or CoE issued in respect of the EA only. A duplicate licence must be obtained for each of the branch office(s) of the EA which is located at different address(es).

<sup>4</sup> Part XII of EO and EAR does not apply to any EA –

- (a) which is carried on or subvented by the Hong Kong Government;
- (b) which is carried on under the terms of a permit to maintain a crew department granted or deemed to be granted under the Merchant Shipping (Seafarers) Ordinance (Cap. 478);
- (c) which is carried on by an employer for the sole purpose of recruiting persons for employment on his own behalf;
- (d) which is carried on by a contractor, or sub-contractor, who employs any person on work for another person;
- (e) which is carried on by the proprietor of a newspaper or other publication if the operation of an EA is non-profit making and is not the principal purpose of the publication of the newspaper or other publication;
- (f) which is –
  - (i) non-profit making;
  - (ii) wholly maintained, or managed by the owner, staff or students of a school, college, university or other educational institution recognized by the Permanent Secretary for Education; and
  - (iii) carried on solely for or in connection with the employment of the students or graduates of such school, college, university or other educational institution; or
- (g) subject to any regulations which may be applicable thereto, in respect of which a CoE has been issued.

<sup>5</sup> Pursuant to section 54(1) of EO, C for L may, upon application in such manner as may be prescribed, exempt an EA from obtaining a licence under section 52 of EO, subject to conditions as he/she may specify, if he/she is satisfied that the EA is non-profit making and should, in the public interest, be so exempted. C for L shall issue to any person exempted under section 54(1) a CoE. EAs granted CoE are still subject to the regulations stipulated in Part XII of EO and EAR.

Chapter 3 : Statutory requirements in relation to operating an employment agency

- 3.2.3 Operating an EA without a valid licence or a CoE is an offence and is liable on conviction to a maximum penalty of a fine of $350,000 and to imprisonment for three years. LD may initiate prosecution against any unlicensed operation without prior warning.
- 3.2.4 No person other than the licensee shall use or make use of, directly or indirectly, an EA licence. The licensee shall not lend, transfer or assign an EA licence to another person.
- 3.2.5 Any person or entity who operates a business either to obtain employment for another person or supply the labour of another person to an employer must obtain an EA licence or a CoE, regardless of the mode of his/her operation (e.g. providing job matching service via a website or mobile applications, etc.) and whether the user will be charged for the service.
- 3.2.6 The laws of Hong Kong do not require EAs to provide other ancillary services for job-seekers (e.g. pre-employment training, visa processing, school search for job-seekers' children, airport transfer, arranging temporary accommodation, etc.) and/or employers. However, if any of such services are offered, EAs must ensure that necessary approval(s) or licence(s) have been obtained from the relevant government authorities for the provision of such services. EAs must also comply with the relevant laws in relation to provision of those services.

3.3 Manner and form for applying for a licence

- 3.3.1 To apply for an EA licence, the applicant shall submit an application no later than one month before the intended date for commencement of business to EAA in the prescribed form together with other documents as required. Where the applicant is a company, the application shall be submitted by a director of the company on its behalf. It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that all information and supporting documents required are provided in a timely manner. Failure to provide the necessary information and/or documents may result in the licence application being delayed or refused. Anyone who furnishes false information in connection with any licence application shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a maximum penalty of a fine of $50,000.
- 3.3.2 A licensee shall ensure that his/her EA licence (including any duplicate licence(s)) is renewed before the present one expires. The renewal application shall be submitted to EAA not later than two months before the expiration of the EA licence.
- 3.3.3 Submitting an application does not necessarily mean that an EA licence will be granted or the applicant is deemed to be authorised to commence operation of an EA. The licence applicant must not start any operation or provide any service before an EA licence has been granted, or to continue business when the existing licence has expired but yet to be renewed. Otherwise he/she shall be guilty for operating an EA without a valid EA licence.

- 3.3.4 Please refer to "Practical guide for operating an employment agency" (<http://www.labour.gov.hk/eng/public/guide/>) issued by LD for more details about the procedures and documents required for application or renewal of an EA licence.

3.4 Requirements under EO and EAR when EA is in business

- 3.4.1 The EA licence (or the duplicate licence in the case of a branch office) as well as Part II of the Second Schedule of EAR regarding the prescribed commission shall be displayed in a prominent position at the place of business of EA.
- 3.4.2 The licensee shall maintain a record showing particulars of every person who registers with his/her EA for employment. The record shall contain the job-seeker's name, address, HKID number (or a passport number and citizenship if the job-seeker is not a Hong Kong resident), fee and commission received, date of employment as well as name and address of employer. A sample of the record sheet is at Appendix 1 in Chapter 5. Such record shall be retained for a period of not less than 12 months after the expiration of each accounting year of EA and shall be kept at the place of business of EA (i.e. the licensed address) to be made available for inspection by LD.
- 3.4.3 The EA licence (including any duplicate licence(s)), as well as the Second Schedule of EAR regarding the prescribed commission shall be displayed conspicuously and the records of particulars of job-seekers (as referred to in paragraph 3.4.2 above) shall be made available for inspection by LD at all reasonable times at the place of business of EA. Failure to do so is an offence liable on conviction to a maximum penalty of a fine of $10,000. Prosecution may be instituted without prior warning.
- 3.4.4 The licensee shall notify EAA in writing of any change of nominated operator or related persons of the licensee, within 14 days after such change. In the case where the change is the place of EA business, the licensee shall give notice to EAA not less than 14 days prior to such change. Failure to do so is an offence liable on conviction to a maximum penalty of a fine of $10,000.
- 3.4.5 In the event of cessation of business, the licence (including any duplicate licence(s)) shall be returned to EAA within 7 days after the cessation of business. Failure to do so is an offence liable on conviction to a maximum penalty of a fine of $10,000.
- 3.4.6 Below is a summary of the notifications to EAA for easy reference. Please refer to "Practical guide for operating an employment agency" for details –
- |  |   |

3.5 Fees that may be charged by EAs

- 3.5.1 In relation to fees, EAs must strictly observe the requirements under section 57 of EO that it must not, directly or indirectly, receive from job-seekers reward of any kind, or any payment or advantages in respect of expenses or otherwise (e.g. photocopying fees, visa processing fees), except the prescribed commission. According to regulation 10 and Part II of the Second Schedule of EAR, the maximum commission which may be received by an EA for each job placement shall be, from each person applying to EA for employment, work or contract or hire of his/her services, an amount not exceeding a sum equal to 10% of the first-month's wages received by such person after he/she has been successfully placed in employment by EA. The prescribed commission shall only be charged after the job-seeker has received his/her first-month's wages, rather than charging them in advance. An EA licensee, an associate of the licensee or a person purporting to act as such licensee or associate who contravenes the relevant law commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a maximum penalty of a fine of $350,000 and to imprisonment for three years.
- 3.5.2 The fees, if any, that EAs may charge job-seekers arising from any ancillary services, in relation to or in connection with obtaining or seeking to obtain employment for job-seekers, together with the commission for placement service, must not exceed the prescribed commission as set out in paragraph 3.5.1 above.
- 3.5.3 If an EA licensee, a nominated operator, a related person of or an individual employed by the licensee; or the person intending to be the licensee, a nominated operator, a related person of or an individual employed by the person intending to be the licensee has been/is convicted of charging a job-seeker a commission in excess of the prescribed commission, C for L may refuse to issue or renew, or revoke the licence of the EA concerned in accordance with section 53(1) of EO.
- 3.5.4 EAs should also observe the requirements under the POBO, including not to solicit, accept or offer any bribe in conducting the EA's business or affairs. Contravention of the relevant law is an offence. ICAC has developed a wide range of corruption prevention publications<sup>6</sup> and provides free corruption prevention advisory service. EAs should familiarize themselves with the relevant laws and consult ICAC (on the relevant laws as well as any corruption prevention advice) where necessary.

3.6 Protecting personal information of employers and job-seekers

- 3.6.1 EAs are required under EO and EAR to maintain records showing particulars of every person who registers with EAs for employment. When handling the personal information of employers and job-seekers, EAs shall also observe the requirements under PDPO. For example, the personal data collected shall be directly related to the purpose for which they are collected and shall not be kept longer than is necessary for the said purpose unless permissible under PDPO.
- 3.6.2 EAs shall also consider carefully whether and what kind of information about the job-seekers would be made available to the prospective employers having regard to PDPO's requirements. Collection of personal data shall be necessary and not excessive to achieve the purposes of collection. EAs shall inform the job-seekers as well as employers in full on the intended use of the personal data collected and their rights of requesting access to such data, and ensure that they have agreed in writing to the proposed uses. To ensure openness and transparency in handling personal data, EAs shall prepare a statement of policy which expresses EA's overall commitment in protecting the privacy interests of the individuals, as well as a statement of practices which include the kinds of personal data held by EAs and the main purposes for which they use the data.
- 3.6.3 EAs shall consider whether the posting of information of FDHs on their websites is necessary or permissible under the PDPO. Generally speaking, the posting of the photographs and background information (such as skills and capabilities) of FDHs on the websites of EAs may assist the initial screening process by prospective employers. Unless with express and written consent from owners of such personal data for the specified purpose, EAs should not post, display or disclose personal information of job-seekers (e.g. name, address, photo, HKID and/or passport numbers, age, religion, body measurements, etc.), their family members (e.g. name, age, occupation, etc.) or their previous employers (e.g. name, address, phone numbers, etc.) publicly, including on their websites. For personal information posted on the websites of EAs, EAs should warn the visitors to their websites that personal data so posted must not be used for any purpose which is unrelated to the purpose of selecting and/or employing FDHs.
- 3.6.4 EAs should not transfer personal data to any parties for purposes unrelated to the provision of their services. They should be aware of the specific requirements for use of personal data in direct marketing activities under PDPO. In general, EAs must notify and obtain consent from FDHs and employers before such use. A response channel should also be provided by EAs in the notification so that FDHs and employers may communicate their consent.

Chapter 3 : Statutory requirements in relation to operating an employment agency

- 3.6.5 EAs shall also take all reasonably practicable steps to ensure that the personal data held by them is protected against unauthorized or accidental access, processing, erasure, loss or use. To achieve this, EAs should ensure that paper files containing personal data are kept under lock in a secure area. For electronic data, EAs should have in place a secure IT computer network for storage and processing (e.g. with up-to-date software enabling password-control and proper encryption); with access to authorized personnel on a need-to-know basis. When EAs dispose storage containing personal data, practical steps must be taken to ensure that such data is permanently erased by means of physical destruction and/or digital deletion and cannot be retrieved after the disposal.

3.7 Carrying out other activities at EA's licensed address

- 3.7.1 An EA must ensure that necessary approval(s) or licence(s) have been obtained from relevant government authorities beforehand for any other activities (e.g. holding training classes or providing temporary accommodation) or non-EA related business (e.g. food business) that will be conducted in his/her EAs' licensed address or other premises; and the relevant laws, regulations, licensing requirements shall be complied with at all times.
- 3.7.2 Should EAs use their EA premises to provide boarding facilities or bedspaces (especially for job-seekers like FDHs who come from overseas), or provide such facilities in other non-EA premises to job-seekers, they must ensure that relevant approval(s) or licence(s) for operating the boarding facilities or bedspaces have been obtained from all relevant government authorities, and the prescribed standards in respect of building structure, fire safety as well as health and hygiene as specified in the relevant laws of Hong Kong (e.g. Buildings Ordinance (Cap. 123), Fire Services Ordinance (Cap. 95), Hotel and Guesthouse Accommodation Ordinance (Cap. 349) and Bedspace Apartments Ordinance (Cap. 447) (if applicable)) and/or any other licensing requirements as devised for such facilities are fully and satisfactorily met at all times. Furthermore, the fees EAs may charge job-seekers for the provision of placement service, together with the ancillary services provided in relation to or in connection with obtaining or seeking to obtain employment for job-seekers, must not exceed the prescribed commission as explained in paragraph 3.5.1 above.

3.8 Adopting fair trade practices

- 3.8.1 In their commercial practices, EAs must not deploy against consumers unfair trade practices prohibited by TDO, including false trade descriptions, misleading omissions, aggressive commercial practices, bait advertising, bait-and-switch and wrongly accepting payment. C&ED is the principal enforcement agency of TDO. Convicted traders may be liable to a maximum penalty of a fine of $500,000 and to imprisonment for five years. C&ED has published two booklets, namely "Enforcement guidelines for the Trade Descriptions (Unfair Trade Practices) (Amendment) Ordinance 2012<sup>7</sup> and "Successful prosecution and accepted undertakings under the Trade Descriptions Ordinance (Cap. 362)"<sup>8</sup> and EAs are advised to familiarise themselves with the details.

- 3.8.2 Unlike the placement of local job-seekers where they could meet the prospective employers before signing employment contracts, and where prospective employers would have more knowledge and channels to verify the academic qualifications, work experience, date of availability, etc. of local job-seekers, prospective employers of overseas job-seekers (including FDHs) would mostly rely on the information provided by EAs in deciding whether to employ the overseas job-seekers concerned. Likewise, overseas job-seekers (including FDHs) would rely heavily on the information provided by EAs regarding the employers to decide whether to accept offers by the prospective employers. In other words, EAs will, in most of the cases, be the only information source for both overseas job-seekers (including FDHs) and their prospective employers. EAs must not take advantage of employers and job-seekers in this regard.
- 3.8.3 EAs must observe the statutory requirements against unfair trade practices prohibited by TDO as mentioned in paragraph 3.8.1 above or they may be liable for an offence, subject to a maximum penalty of a fine of $500,000 and to imprisonment for five years upon conviction.

3.9 Observing immigration laws

- 3.9.1 When the placement involves job-seekers from overseas, EAs must observe the relevant immigration requirements and restrictions relating to the employability of the job-seekers.
- 3.9.2 EAs shall not aid or abet job-seekers or employers to breach the job-seekers' conditions of stay in Hong Kong or otherwise the EAs concerned may be liable for an offence, subject to a maximum penalty of a fine of $50,000 and imprisonment for two years.
- 3.9.3 If the placement involves FDHs, EAs are reminded that FDHs are granted permission to stay and work in Hong Kong only during the contractual period, which is normally two years as stated in SEC unless the contracts are pre-maturely terminated. Under the prevailing policy, FDHs have to leave Hong Kong before the expiry of their limit of stay upon completion of contract or within 14 days from the date of termination of contract, whichever is earlier. EAs shall not aid or abet FDHs to overstay or otherwise EAs may be liable for an offence as mentioned in paragraph 3.9.2 above.
- 3.9.4 Pursuant to Clause 3 of SEC, FDHs are required to work and reside in the employer's residence specified therein. Clause 4(a) of SEC provides that FDHs shall only perform domestic duties for the employer as per the Schedule of Accommodation and Domestic

Chapter 3 : Statutory requirements in relation to operating an employment agency

Duties attached to SEC. It is also stated in Clause 4(b) of SEC that FDHs shall not take up any other employment with any other person. EAs shall not aid or abet FDHs to work in other places or carry out any work for any other person, or otherwise EAs may be liable for aiding or abetting FDHs to breach their conditions of stay as mentioned in paragraph 3.9.2 above.

3.10 Not to aid or abet employers to breach EO on payment of wages

- 3.10.1 According to EO, employers must pay their employees on time and not to deduct wages unlawfully<sup>9</sup>. EAs shall not aid or abet employers to underpay their employees, or make unlawful deduction from wages. An employer who fails to pay wages to an employee on time commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a maximum penalty of a fine of $350,000 and to imprisonment for three years. Making unlawful deduction from wages of an employee is also an offence and shall be liable to a maximum penalty of a fine of $100,000 and to imprisonment for one year. EAs or any persons aiding or abetting the commission of such offences shall be guilty of the like offence and be liable to the same penalty.
- 3.10.2 If the placement involves FDHs, EAs shall not aid or abet employers to offer FDHs a wage that is lower than the prevailing Minimum Allowable Wage (MAW) when SEC is signed, or advise employers to make unlawful wage deductions for any reasons (e.g. repaying a loan to a third party including overseas intermediaries) or paying wages to a third person instead of paying directly to FDHs. As stated in paragraph 3.10.1 above, EAs or any persons aiding or abetting the employers to make unlawful deductions from wages of an employee shall be guilty of the like offence and be liable to the same penalty therefor under EO. Any person, including EA, who aids or abets the commission by another person (e.g. employers) to make false statement or representation to an Immigration Officer by proclaiming to pay MAW on SEC but underpays the FDH during the employment period shall be liable for an offence under IO, subject to a maximum penalty of a fine of $150,000 and to imprisonment for 14 years upon conviction on indictment.

- (a) deductions for absence from work. The deduction shall not exceed a sum proportionate to the period of time the employee is absent from work;
- (b) deductions for damage to or loss of the employer's goods, equipment, or property by the employee's neglect or default. In any one case, the sum to be deducted shall not exceed the equivalent in value of the damage or loss suffered by the employer or $300, whichever is the less. The total of such deductions shall not exceed one quarter of the wages payable to the employee in that wage period;
- (c) deductions for the recovery of any advance or over payment of wages made to the employee. The total sum to be deducted shall not exceed one quarter of the wages payable to the employee in that wage period;
- (d) deductions, with the employees' written consent, for the recovery of any loan made by the employer to the employee;

The total of all permitted deductions, excluding deductions for absence from work and certain deductions made pursuant to court orders, shall not exceed one half of the wages payable to the employee in that wage period.

3.11 Personal documents and property of job-seekers

- 3.11.1 EAs shall not retrieve or withhold any personal property, including but not limited to a job-seeker's passport, personal identification document, employment contract, bank credit or debit cards, school certificates, any other materials distributed to the job-seeker by LD or any other relevant authorities (e.g. Consulates-General (CGs)) without his/her explicit consent. Withholding the personal property of job-seekers, including but not limited to the items mentioned above, without the owners' explicit consent may constitute an offence, for example, under the Theft Ordinance (Cap. 210). If convicted upon indictment for theft, a person shall be liable to a maximum penalty of imprisonment for 10 years.

Standards which the Commissioner for Labour expects from employment agencies

4.1 Introduction

- 4.1.1 According to section 62A(1) of EO, C for L may issue CoPs setting out principles, procedures, guidelines and standards for the operation, management or control of EAs.
- 4.1.2 All personnel of EAs must comply with the requirements and standards set out in this CoP. Some standards set out in this Chapter are particularly relevant to EAs engaged in FDH placements. LD may issue warning letters to EAs for rectification of irregularities detected, including but not limited to failing to meet the statutory requirements and/or standards set out in this CoP. C for L may also consider, amongst other relevant factors, the relevant track records<sup>10</sup> of the EAs and/or their capability of meeting such requirements/standards in making decision of revoking, or refusing to issue or renew EA licences under sections 53(1)(c)(iva), 53(1)(d)(iii) and 53(1)(e)(ii) of EO.
- 4.1.3 C for L may, for the purpose of protecting the public interest, publish information on his/her issuance of warning or any disciplinary action taken against an EA for contraventions of EO, EAR and/or this CoP.
- 4.1.4 As of the end of December 2017, there were some 369 700 FDHs who were mostly female workers coming from the Philippines (54%) and Indonesia (43%), with the rest from other economies including India, Thailand, Nepal, Sri Lanka and Pakistan, etc.. FDHs help meet the proven and long-standing shortage of full-time live-in domestic workers in the Hong Kong labour market. They also enable more local women (especially those with young children or elderly family members) to stay, enter or re-join our labour market which is facing manpower shortage. FDHs, particularly those who come to Hong Kong to work for the first time, may lack family support, face language barrier, and take time to establish their social network in Hong Kong. Most newly-arrived FDHs need more attention, care and assistance for settling and integrating into society than local workers. EAs are one of the institutions that FDHs know and which FDHs may approach for assistance, particularly shortly after their arrival in Hong Kong. Indeed, EAs have a duty in ensuring proper placement of their FDH clients.

<sup>10</sup> For example, whether systematic and intentional abuse has been detected or EAs have persistently failed to meet the requirements and/or standards set out in this CoP, as well as records of failure to rectify upon warning of LD, etc..

- 4.1.5 FDHs, like local workers, enjoy the statutory employment rights and benefits under EO and ECO. In addition, the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) Government has prescribed SEC under which FDHs enjoy wage protection through MAW, and benefits provided by their employers including free accommodation, free food (or food allowance in lieu), free medical treatment, and free passages to/from their home countries, etc.. To ensure FDHs are aware of their rights and obligations, as well as the channels available for seeking assistance, the HKSAR Government undertakes various promotional and educational activities to enhance their awareness, as well as working closely with CGs of FDHs' home countries in Hong Kong.

4.2 Senior management's responsibilities

- 4.2.1 The licensee, company director(s), nominated operator and persons in senior management of an EA have the responsibility and are fully accountable for the operation of their EA.
- 4.2.2 The licensee, company director(s), nominated operator and persons in senior management of an EA are required to closely supervise their staff. They will be held accountable for all acts and conducts of all of their staff in relation to the provision of job-placement services even though they may not be the one(s) who failed to meet the statutory requirements and/or standards in this CoP.
- 4.2.3 The relevant government authorities may need to contact the licensee, company director(s) and/or nominated operator if and where necessary. As such, an EA is required to notify EAA as soon as practicable and preferably within 14 days of any change of the contact particulars of the licensee, company director(s) and/or nominated operator. This is particularly relevant to EAs engaged in FDH placements as those EAs could well be one of FDHs' major contact points in Hong Kong.
- 4.2.4 The licensee, company director(s), nominated operator and persons in senior management of an EA should exercise caution and professional judgment in selecting and/or cooperating with any local and overseas business partners. For example, they should consider whether or not the business partner(s) has (have) obtained all required licence(s) from relevant authorities and have due regard to their records of compliance with the relevant laws, codes of practice, guidance notes, if available. EAs in Hong Kong may check with the governments of the home countries of FDHs and/or their CGs in Hong Kong direct for the standing of their potential business partner(s) overseas in case of doubt. Where EAs in Hong Kong are receiving referrals of overseas employees (including FDHs), the licensee, company director(s) and/or nominated operator would need to consider if the overseas business partner(s) could provide reliable information about the job-seekers, including but not limited to the academic qualifications, skills, training received, medical examination reports, etc..

Chapter 4 : Standards which the Commissioner for Labour expects from employment agencies

4.3 Display of notices as required by law and government authorities

- 4.3.1 EAs are required to display their licences and Part II of the Second Schedule of EAR (which is a statutory requirement mentioned in paragraph 3.4.1 above) at the window-panel (if applicable), billboards near the entrance, or at the service counter(s) of their licensed premises to ensure that employers and job-seekers could easily notice and read such important information once they enter the premises. If an EA maintains a website and/or mobile application, the licence number of the valid EA licence should also be displayed thereat for easy reference by the public. This is applicable to all EAs including, amongst others, EAs engaged in FDH placements.

4.4 Acting honestly and exercising due diligence

- 4.4.1 To facilitate job-seekers and employers to make an informed decision, EAs should exercise due diligence in checking the accuracy of the information provided by both job-seekers and employers, including the information provided in the resume of the job-seekers as far as practicable (e.g. the accuracy and/or validity of the qualification and work experience set out therein) and the details about the job (e.g. information on employers, job description, remunerations and benefits, etc.). At the time of accepting payment of their service fees, EAs should ensure that the candidates offered to employers are available for filling the vacancy, and could satisfy the qualification and/or requirements (e.g. language proficiency, skills, past work experience, etc.), if any, set out specifically by the employers.
- 4.4.2 EAs should also ensure that any information that is made available to employers (e.g. medical examination reports, language and skills assessment reports of the FDHs) or to job-seekers (e.g. information about the job, accommodation arrangements provided by employers) is consistent with the facts made known to them. If there are reasonable grounds for EAs to suspect the accuracy of the information submitted by job-seekers or employers, or that some information is not complete, EAs should seek clarification and further information from the party concerned (e.g. the data subject and/or the local or overseas business partners that refer the employer/job-seeker(s)). EAs should refrain from using any doubtful information before it has been clarified. These are particularly relevant to those EAs engaged in FDH placements.

4.5 Maintaining transparency in business operations

- 4.5.1 EAs should set out the service terms, fees schedules and complaint procedures for job-seekers and employers in writing respectively in the service agreements that they enter with job-seekers and employers. To avoid disputes, it is suggested that the job-seekers and employers be asked to acknowledge in writing that they understand the terms provided in the respective service agreements. EAs should also provide opportunities for job-seekers and employers to raise questions and supply sufficient information through suitable means. These are particularly relevant to EAs engaged in FDH placements.

- 4.5.2 Where EAs are collaborating with overseas business partners (for example, recruitment agents or training centres at the FDHs' home countries) in the placement of FDHs, EAs should disclose to employers and FDHs the names of the business partners. If EAs claim to be authorized by foreign governments for providing placement service to their nationals, they should display the accreditation or certificate in their business addresses and the websites (if any).

4.6 Drawing up service agreements with job-seekers and with employers

- 4.6.1 To protect the interest of job-seekers, employers as well as EAs and to avoid/minimise misunderstanding on the services to be provided by EAs, a service agreement needs to be drawn up and agreed by concerned parties (i.e. one between EA and job-seeker; and another between EA and employer), preferably at the beginning of the job-placement process or before any payment is made. The service agreement needs to list out the service terms and scope as well as the fees (if any) that will be charged by EA for the services<sup>11</sup>. EA should keep the copies of service agreements drawn up with job-seekers and employers as part of their placement records for inspection by LD.
- 4.6.2 A sample service agreement for EAs with FDHs and another one for EAs with FDH employers are provided respectively in Appendices 2a and 2b in Chapter 5 for reference by EAs involved in FDH placements. EAs involved in FDH placements may add other items as they deem it appropriate when drawing up their own service agreements with FDHs and employers, provided that such additions are fair, reasonable and in line with the relevant laws and this CoP, but such agreements should include the items as set out below:
- (a) The FDH EA's service agreement with FDHs (Appendix 2a in Chapter 5) needs to include, but not limited to, the following items:
- The types of service to be provided (e.g. seek for new employer, direct hire, contract renewal, etc.);
  - Whether commission would be charged, and the amount if charged, which is in any case not more than 10% of the FDH's first-month's wages received after successful placement;
  - Date of which the commission will be paid (which cannot be prior to receipt of first-month's wages by FDHs after successful placement); and
  - FDH's employment history in the past two years, etc. (if FDH is agreeable to disclose such to prospective employers).

<sup>11</sup> According to EO and EAR, the maximum commission which may be received by an EA from a job-seeker shall be an amount not exceeding a sum equal to 10% of the first-month's wages received by the job-seeker for each employment that he/she has been successfully placed by the EA. The provisions are applicable to all job-seekers.

Chapter 4 : Standards which the Commissioner for Labour expects from employment agencies

(b) The FDH EA's service agreement with FDH employers (Appendix 2b in Chapter 5) needs to include, but not limited to, the following items:

- The types of service to be provided (e.g. to recruit FDHs from overseas, FDHs already in HK, direct hire, contract renewal, etc.);
- Details of the fees to be charged by EA and how they will be calculated (e.g. amount or method of calculation, the itemised fee such as visa fee charged by the relevant authorities including governments of FDH's home country, passage/airfare for the FDH to travel from his/her place of domicile, medical examination fee, etc.);
- The payment schedule to EA (e.g. by instalments or payment upon completion of service);
- Whether refund is available in case the EA services are not delivered in full (e.g. the selected FDH fails to obtain employment visa, he/she fails to report duty as per the agreed date, or the employer's application is not approved by the authorities, etc.);
- Whether EA's service fees would be charged in case the selected FDH fails to report duty eventually;
- Whether EA's service fees would be charged in case replacement of FDH is required;
- Employer's history of employing FDHs, if any, in past two years (if the employer is agreeable to releasing the information to prospective FDHs);
- When a FDH has been selected, the information (e.g. the name, nationality, his/her passport number) and a copy of the resume of the selected FDH (sample at Appendix 3 in Chapter 5) to be provided; and
- The estimated time required for various stages of the application under processing and the expected date when the FDH reports duty.

4.6.3 In addition, a sample each of EAs' service agreement with other job-seekers and with other employers are respectively provided at Appendices 2c and 2d in Chapter 5 for reference by EAs involved in non-FDH placements. EAs may add other items as they deem it appropriate when drawing up their own service agreements with job-seekers and employers, provided that such additions are fair, reasonable and in line with the relevant laws and this CoP.

4.7 Provision of payment receipts

- 4.7.1 EAs should provide receipts for any payments received from job-seekers and employers as soon as practicable. The receipts should bear the name of EA. Copies of receipts issued to job-seekers and employers should be kept together with the employment records for inspection by LD.
- 4.7.2 To provide more guidance to EAs involved in the placement of FDHs, a sample of the receipts provided to FDHs and employers are provided in Appendices 4a and 4b in Chapter 5 respectively. EAs may add other items as they deem it appropriate when drawing up their own receipts for FDHs and employers, provided that such additions are fair, reasonable and in line with the relevant laws and this CoP, but such receipts should include items as set out below:
- (a) The receipt to FDHs (Appendix 4a in Chapter 5) needs to include, but not limited to, the following items:
- The name of EA;
  - The company chop of the EA;
  - The name of FDH;
  - The amount of money received from FDH and its nature; and
  - The date of receipt, etc..
- (b) The receipt to FDH employers (Appendix 4b in Chapter 5) needs to include, but not limited to, the following items:
- The name of EA;
  - The company chop of the EA;
  - The name of the employer;
  - The name of FDH that the employer has offered employment;
  - The agreed date of reporting duty; and
  - The amount of money received and its nature, etc..
- 4.7.3 A sample each of the receipt provided to other job-seekers and employers are respectively provided at Appendices 4c and 4d in Chapter 5. EAs may add other items as they deem it appropriate when drawing up their own receipts for job-seekers and employers, provided that such additions are fair, reasonable and in line with the relevant laws and this CoP.

Chapter 4 : Standards which the Commissioner for Labour expects from employment agencies

4.8 Provision of the employment contract to the contracting parties

- 4.8.1 If EA is responsible for handling the employment contract between employers and job-seekers, the signed originals of the employment contract should be provided by EA to both signatories as soon as practicable.
- 4.8.2 In respect of FDHs and workers imported under the Supplementary Labour Scheme (SLS), the HKSAR Government has prescribed SECs respectively for each of them (sample of SEC for FDHs is at Appendix 6a; and sample of SEC for SLS workers is at Appendix 6b in Chapter 5). EAs should ensure that FDHs and SLS workers enter into SECs with their employers, and should provide originals of the signed contract to both signatories for retention as soon as practicable.
- 4.8.3 It is quite common for EAs involved in placement of FDHs to assist both employers and FDHs to handle SEC, e.g. arranging SEC to be signed by FDHs who are still residing in their home countries and arranging the signed SECs to be notarized by the CGs concerned (if applicable). In case that FDHs concerned are still residing in their home countries and hence SEC could not be signed simultaneously by both parties, EAs should still provide a copy of SEC that has already been signed by the employer for the latter's retention. EAs should later arrange to send a copy of the completed SEC (i.e. signed by both parties) to both FDHs and employers as soon as practicable. EAs should keep the acknowledgement or confirmation as part of their placement records for inspection by LD.
- 4.8.4 To enhance FDHs' understanding of the accommodation arrangements proposed by their employer in the Schedule of Accommodation and Domestic Duties attached to SEC, EAs should remind employers to provide photos and/or other information (e.g. written description) of the proposed accommodation and, when provided by the employer, pass on such information to the FDH concerned for his/her information before signing the SEC.

4.9 Maintaining professional knowledge and staying up to date on latest laws and regulations relating to the industry

- 4.9.1 The licensees, nominated operators, related persons of or individuals employed by the licensees should ensure that they have reasonable knowledge of the legal provisions relevant to the operation of EAs, including but not limited to EO, EAR, ECO, TDO and PDPO, as well as anti-discrimination ordinances that are employment related, and requirements and standards set out in this CoP. EAs engaged in FDH placements should also be familiar with SEC and other documents relevant to the employment of FDHs. EAs should also be vigilant to the developments in personal data privacy issues by referring to the related guidance and code of practice issued by PCPD from time to time.

4.10 Promoting job-seekers and employers' awareness of their rights and obligations

- 4.10.1 The HKSAR Government attaches great importance to enhancing job-seekers' awareness of their employment rights and available channels for seeking assistance. For employers, it is important for them to understand and observe their obligations relating to employment matters.
- 4.10.2 EAs, being the intermediaries between job-seekers and employers, should clearly explain to their clients (i.e. job-seekers and employers) their statutory rights and obligations and ensure that their clients are fully aware of, and understand such.
- 4.10.3 Local job-seekers may have more channels to obtain information on their labour rights, and are likely to know how to approach the relevant authorities particularly LD, if they have enquiries. This may not necessarily be true in the case of FDHs particularly those newly-arrived.
- 4.10.4 EAs should brief FDHs on their rights under SEC, EO, ECO, PDPO, as well as anti-discrimination ordinances that are employment related. EAs should also brief FDHs where they can seek assistance from the HKSAR Government and/or other related organisations (e.g. relevant CGs). In relation to enhancing FDHs' awareness of their rights under SEC, EAs should provide FDHs with a copy of the sample SEC in their mother language (Appendix 6a in Chapter 5), and ask the FDHs concerned to acknowledge or confirm in writing that EAs have briefed them about the content and provided them with a copy of the sample SEC. EAs should keep the acknowledgement or confirmation as part of their placement records for inspection by LD.
- 4.10.5 There is also a possibility that employers of FDHs, especially those who employ FDHs for the first time and, who are individuals or families not necessarily familiar with employment matters, may not fully appreciate their obligations in relation to the employment of FDHs. EAs should brief FDH employers properly about their obligations under EO, IO and SEC. EAs should also remind FDH employers to take out suitable employees' compensation insurance for their employees as required under ECO and their obligations under Clause 9 of the SEC in relation to medical expenses of their FDHs.
- 4.10.6 While the HKSAR Government will continue its efforts in educating and raising the awareness of FDHs and their employers about their respective rights and obligations, EAs, being the primary contact point of both FDHs and their employers, are effective channels to help disseminate the relevant publications and publicity materials to them. In this regard, EAs involved in placement of FDHs should observe the following standards:

Chapter 4 : Standards which the Commissioner for Labour expects from employment agencies

- (a) To display the publicity materials (e.g. posters, pamphlets and guidebooks) produced by LD and/or other government departments on the rights of FDHs prominently within the EAs' premises so that FDHs and their employers can access the materials easily. Suggested places of display are: window-panel, service counter(s), billboards, etc., which are prominently located within the EAs' premises. If EAs have hosted websites and/or mobile applications, they should also post a link to LD's website to facilitate FDHs' and their employers' access to the relevant publicity information.
- (b) To provide FDHs and their employers with the guidebooks and information pamphlets, etc. relating to the rights and benefits of FDHs as published by LD or any other relevant authorities (e.g. Social Welfare Department (SWD), ImmD, etc.), which include, but not limited to, the following:
  - "Practical guide for employment of foreign domestic helpers - What foreign domestic helpers and their employers should know" by LD;
  - "Foreign domestic helpers' rights and protection under the Employment Ordinance" by LD;
  - "Important notes for foreign domestic helpers and their employers when using the service of employment agencies in Hong Kong" leaflet by LD;
  - "The Do's and Don'ts" leaflet for foreign domestic helpers, employers and employment agencies by LD;
  - "Important Information for Employers and Employees on Compensation for Work Injuries and Occupational Diseases" leaflet by LD;
  - "Illegal employment of foreign domestic helpers is prohibited" leaflet by ImmD; and
  - "Foreign domestic helpers - Safety requirements for cleaning outward-facing windows" leaflet by LD and the Occupational Safety and Health Council (OSHC).
- (c) To provide FDHs with handy card produced by LD concerning important advice from the HKSAR Government; "Carefully select your Employment Agencies - Beware of employment traps" leaflet by LD; leaflet on integrated family services by SWD; and leaflet on the crisis intervention and support services by Tung Wah Group of Hospitals CEASE Crisis Centre.
- (d) To provide employers of FDHs with "Points to note for employers on the employment of foreign domestic helpers" by LD; "Tips for Employers of Foreign Domestic Helpers - The responsibilities of taking out employees' compensation insurance and providing free medical treatment" by LD; and "Underpaying foreign domestic helpers is a serious offence" leaflet by LD.

- (e) To provide the sample forms listed below to facilitate FDHs and their employers for record-keeping or perusal as and when necessary:
- Sample wage receipt for FDHs (Appendix 7 in Chapter 5);
  - Sample letter of termination of SEC initiated by FDH (Appendix 8a in Chapter 5) and by FDH employer (Appendix 8b in Chapter 5); and
  - Sample receipt for payment upon termination/expiry of SEC (Appendix 9 in Chapter 5).
- 4.10.7 To avoid disputes, EAs should ask FDHs and their employers (whoever as appropriate) to acknowledge receipt of the publications and sample forms as listed in paragraph 4.10.6 above, and to confirm that they have been briefed about their rights and obligations in full and understand such in writing. EAs should include the written acknowledgement or confirmation as part of the placement records for inspection by LD, particularly in case there are any disputes or complaints against the EAs concerned.

4.11 Adopting good record management practices

- 4.11.1 EAs are required to keep records relating to their dealings with job-seekers and their employers. Apart from keeping the employment records as required under the law (see paragraph 3.4.2 above), EAs should provide the signing parties copies of all documents that the job-seekers and employers have signed in their dealing with the EA, and also keep other relevant records including the service agreements (paragraph 4.5.1 and 4.6.1), payment receipts issued (paragraph 4.7.1), the acknowledgement from employers and FDHs regarding their receipt of the signed SEC (paragraph 4.8.3), the sample SEC in the mother language of the FDH concerned (paragraph 4.10.4), publicity materials and sample forms (paragraph 4.10.7), enquiries handled, and assistance or advice rendered to job-seekers and their employers, etc.. These records could serve as useful information in case the government authorities contact EAs to investigate disputes in relation to their dealings with employers and/or job-seekers. These are particularly relevant to EAs engaged in FDH placements. A sample acknowledgment/confirmation for FDHs and their employers are respectively provided at Appendices 5a and 5b in Chapter 5 so that they may confirm having received the various documents, information and having been explained their rights and obligations as required in this Chapter.

4.12 Avoiding involvement in financial affairs of job-seekers

- 4.12.1 EAs should not be directly or indirectly involved in the financial affairs of job-seekers. They should not advise, arrange, encourage or force job-seekers to take out loans from any financial institutions or individuals. This is particularly relevant to EAs involved in

Chapter 4 : Standards which the Commissioner for Labour expects from employment agencies

FDH placements. They should not help any other persons, organisations or companies (including recruiting agents or intermediaries located in or outside Hong Kong) to collect fees for arranging FDHs concerned to come to Hong Kong, or training fees for any local or overseas recruiters, agents or training centres, etc.. They should not advise, arrange, encourage or force FDHs to borrow money from any institutions in or outside Hong Kong, regardless of the purpose of the loan (e.g. for personal use or for job placement/training in or outside Hong Kong).

4.13 Job-seekers' passports or personal identification documents

- 4.13.1 EAs in the course of placing job-seekers to/from overseas may need the passport or personal identification document of the non-local job-seekers, or local job-seekers who are seeking overseas employment. However, upon obtaining the employment or relevant visa for the job-seeker concerned, EAs shall return the passport or personal identification document directly to the job-seeker without delay. EAs should not withhold job-seekers' passports or personal identification documents, etc. in order to force them to pay or repay any sum of money such as training fees, fees for arranging them to come to Hong Kong, loans made by FDHs, etc. regardless of whether the sum of money arose before the FDHs came to Hong Kong. These are particularly relevant to EAs engaged in FDH placements.

4.14 Protecting job-seekers from false self-employment

- 4.14.1 EAs should explain clearly to the job-seeker the nature of the job including whether or not the job-seeker will be engaged as an employee with the organization that he/she is placed, be employed as the EA's direct employee, or a self-employed person/contractor, before a contract is entered into. EAs should also inform the job-seeker concerned about the difference between an employee and a self-employed person/contractor, in particular the employment rights and benefits that he/she may not enjoy in the latter case. EAs should not change or encourage employers to change the status of their employees to a status of self-employed persons/contractors for the reasons of avoiding their obligations under EO, ECO and any relevant laws.
